Updates:

- Budget
 - Our budget is moving in the right direction
 - Every spring, principals make projections for the following year.
 - This year, we are getting back $66,000 from the DOE.
 - With the money we might: add an additional school aide, keep both Ms. Weiss & Ms. Bail for the full year, fund the quest after school program, create RTI after school program, and use it toward teacher absences (substitutes).
 - Some RTI programs started, others will start after winter break.
 - We will have over 200 students in extra help programs.
- PBIS
 - Kickoff starts on Tuesday, December 13th

Open Meeting Rules:

- We must have open SLT meetings.
- We have to send notification of everything we do in the SLT to the district.
- We will post dates on the website.
- We will make rules on how we will welcome people from outside SLT.

Data Discussion:

- Review of new data: "2016 School Performance Dashboard"
- Our student achievement is getting closer and closer to average.
- Compared to other city schools, we are improving and getting better and better.
- Every trend is moving in the right direction.
- While the results are not good, they have improved.

Discussion of Rigorous Instruction goal:

- Big increase last year. We expect another big increase this year.
- This goal is an indicator if our school is moving in the right direction.

Discussion of Supportive Environment goal:

- P.S.182 teachers rated student behavior at 62% compared to 74% for the city.
- How kids interact with each other and how kids feel about themselves is just as important as academics.
- Grades k-3 use a new social emotional program called Sanford Harmony. This is built into daily schedules.
- Grades 4-5 use restorative circles.
- We will add positive shout outs to Parsons building.
- We do PBIS, restorative circles, and star of the heart.
- We want to celebrate kids making decisions on their own.
- Our goal is to have kids making responsible decisions themselves.

Next SLT meeting: Tuesday, January 3rd at 4:00pm
